

AFTER BECOMING A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, I WILL SIT ON PAVEMENT TO WORK FOR THE PEOPLE'S WELFARE- KHANDELWAL

Praveen Khandelwal, the BJP candidate from Chandni Chowk Lok Sabha constituency today made a big announcement that after becoming MP, he will hold Jan-Chaupal on pavement and will solve problems of the public.

During his meet the people campaign, Khandelwal received blessings from Jain monk Acharya Shri 108 Pragyasagar Muniraj at the Lal Mandir ancient Jain temple in Delhi before addressing a gathering.

He emphasized his deep connection to the Chandni Chowk area, stating his intention to solve people's issues directly through public gatherings rather than in closed rooms. Khandelwal pledged to continue the tradition of his uncle, who used to meet people at a Chabutara in the area ensuring officials from all departments are present to address concerns.

He expressed confidence in BJP workers strong support and unwavering trust from the people, aiming for a resounding victory in the elections. Khandelwal assured that under Modi's leadership, Chandni Chowk's development is guaranteed, promising to ensure every household benefits from the government's welfare schemes.

He concluded with optimism, predicting BJP's massive victory in Chandni Chowk and the formation of Modi's government for the third consecutive term with over 400 seats.

During the campaign, today he went to Ram Nagar area of Ballimaran Assembly where more than 500 women and people of the area gave a rousing welcome to him and assured their full support
