

Press Release

18th April, 2024

Praveen Khandelwal, the BJP candidate from Chandni Chowk, held a special meeting with his media friends today at Lodi Estate in Delhi, refreshing memories with them.

Khandelwal has a special rapport with the media, which has contributed significantly to his success and popularity, making him widely acclaimed in both print and electronic media. To strengthen his longstanding relationship with media colleagues and revive old memories, Khandelwal personally met with them today at the event. He expressed gratitude for their support over the years, acknowledging their vital role in his achievements.*

Before this, Khandelwal started his day at Hathoda Ram Park in Keshav Puram, where he engaged with a large number of people at the park choupal organized by RWAs. He received overwhelming support and reassured the residents of addressing their issues promptly.*

Khandelwal mentioned, "The media has played a significant role in my success and popularity. My relationship with my media friends is not just of today but spans over many decades. They have witnessed my struggles and battles, and I've always had their support. That's why today's meeting holds a special place in my heart. We've had a great time reminiscing about old Delhi."
