Khandelwal Pledges to Work Hard in Public Service After Taking Oath as Member of Parliament

Mr. Praveen Khandelwal, the BJP MP from Chandni Chowk, took the oath as a Member of Parliament today, on the first day of the parliamentary session, in the name of God.

After taking the oath, Mr. Khandelwal said, "I have taken the oath as a Member of Parliament with great pride and humility. I am grateful to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the BJP leadership, and my constituency for giving me the opportunity to serve as a member of this largest temple of democracy."

Mr. Khandelwal stated that under the capable and strong leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, his priority will be the complete development of his constituency and resolving people's issues to improve their quality of life so that every face has a smile and no eyes have tears.

Mr. Khandelwal emphasized that the progress of our nation is linked to the prosperity of all its citizens. In this regard, he will work diligently among the traders across the country to make Prime Minister Modi's vision of making India a global leader and the third-largest economy in the world a reality. He also mentioned that he will make every possible effort for the development of education, healthcare, infrastructure, employment, and basic facilities. He will continuously strive to provide ease of doing business and new business opportunities for traders, financial empowerment for women, more opportunities for youth, and equal rights for all sections of society.

Mr. Khandelwal said, "My journey as a Member of Parliament is not possible without the cooperation and support of the people, and therefore, I will continuously communicate with the people and leave no stone unturned in addressing their problems."

Mr. Khandelwal expressed his gratitude to all the voters of his constituency and assured them that he will strive to live up to their expectations. He is ready to fulfill this new responsibility and is committed to working with the people towards a brighter future.
